

I find it offensive that Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing its local stations to air an anti-Kerry fictional "documentary" as a "news" program days before the election. As a broadcaster using the public airwaves at no cost, Sinclair is supposed to serve the public interest, not the political interests of its management.